The Buffalo State SBDC launched 2020 with a sold-out QuickBooks training program for entrepreneurs on Monday, January 6th. Certified Public Accountant and QuickBooks certified trainer, Kelly A. Dawson, presented multiple small business book-keeping practices, including tracking and managing sales, recording expenses effectively, and creating expense reports. She also expertly taught ways in which QuickBooks can be utilized to perform financial analysis using existing data. Evaluations of the program produced glowing comments, including:

“Very informative! The speaker went through every detail perfectly.”

The SBDC is targeting August 2020 for the next QuickBooks program. For updates on QuickBooks scheduling, please email Dee Davis at JONESDD@BUFFALOSTATE.EDU or call the office at 716-878-4030.
