DEVELOPMENT CENTER

The MWBE certification is designed to assist in the growth and development of businesses controlled by minorities and women. The purpose of certification is to increase participation in procurement activities in New York State. If certified - you can gain an advantage when marketing goods / services to state agencies and authorities.

This program will give you an opportunity to meet with regional certification experts, including individuals whom evaluate your application.

Meet with the experts and leadership in MWBE certification! It will greatly improve your understanding on this oftentimes challenging process. The program is free of charge, but due to space limitations you will need to register. Materials and refreshments will be provided.
